Ballet Flamenco Eva Yerbabuena

Eva Yerbabuena, a consummate dancer noted for her fiery performances, is acknowledged as one of the most important female dancers and choreographers in flamenco today. Her style, which represents the strength of womanhood, introduces modern elements, yet is deeply rooted in tradition. She was recently awarded the Premio Nacional de Danza, Spain`s highest honor for dance. Her 16-member company will be making its New York debut.

: she performed traditional solos with such powerful magnetism that the capacity crowd was transfixed.
